Khazanah launches #BerbudiBersama initiative to celebrate 30 Years of Advancing Malaysia!

#BerbudiBersama symbolises the spirit of unity and collaboration among Malaysians in driving growth for the nation

Khazanah Nasional (“Khazanah”) launched the #BerbudiBersama community outreach programme at Taman Tugu Lawn in Kuala Lumpur today, in conjunction with its 30th Anniversary this year.

The launch is the kick-start of a series of community outreach programmes taking place nationwide. Through the initiative, Khazanah, its affiliated entities and Khazanah-linked companies (KLCs) hopes to establish closer relationships with communities, encouraging greater collaboration and impact creation.

The nationwide community outreach programme caters to all Malaysians from all walks of life and income groups, delivering various activities which include upskilling activities and opportunities, financial literacy sessions, entrepreneurial guidance and educational workshops, health and wellbeing and others.

The activities under the #BerbudiBersama are relevant to Khazanah’s core societal pillars of Building Capacity and Creating Opportunities, Community Development, Environment Preservation and Arts, Heritage and Culture Preservation.

The #BerbudiBersama initiative was officiated by the Minister of Finance II, YB Senator Datuk Seri Amir Hamzah Azizan in the presence of the community and hosted by Khazanah Managing Director, Dato’ Amirul Feisal Wan Zahir. Khazanah and Amanah Warisan Negara (AWAN) board members, and other key delegates from Yayasan Hasanah, Think City, Taman Tugu and KLCs were also present.

Dato’ Amirul Feisal said, “The launch of the #BerbudiBersama is not only to celebrate Khazanah’s 30th Anniversary, but it marks a significant step forward in fostering a spirit of unity and collaboration in Malaysia. By bringing together diverse stakeholders across the nation, we aim to empower communities, celebrate our shared heritage and create a lasting positive impact for all Malaysians. We are excited to embark on this journey and believe that together, we can build a brighter future for generations to come.”

Visitors at the event were able to enjoy various activities provided by over the 100 participating booths. This includes among many, dedicated Gerai Rakyat booths from local SMEs offering food & beverages, local merchandises, and many more fun activities for children. Various educational talks on mental health awareness, youth, and CSR efforts were also conducted including traditional dance performances.

Khazanah’s value creation arms Yayasan Hasanah, Think City and Taman Tugu, together with KLCs and investee companies, namely Axiata, CIMB, Malaysia Airports, TNB, TM, UEM Group, PLUS, Iskandar Investment Berhad, IHH Healthcare, Destination Resorts and Hotels (DRH), Cenviro, ReGen Rehab Hospital and Farm Fresh also showcased various community development projects, products, including arts, culture & heritage preservation efforts.

As Khazanah continues its commitment to commercial and investing activities, it is also committed to the fostering of inclusivity and empowerment, striving to raise marginalised communities, promoting education, upskilling talents, and embodying sustainable and responsible practices, to build a nation that thrives on equality and shared prosperity.

“We are committed to continuing our contribution towards economic prosperity and the strengthening of socioeconomic values for all Malaysians. The progress achieved over the past years is not only ours to celebrate, as it is a result of a collective ‘All-of-Malaysia’ effort by all our stakeholders including the community. As we turn 30 this year, we dedicate a heartfelt gratitude to our stakeholders, acknowledging their passion, support and shared vision in ensuring sustainable progress for Malaysia,” added Amirul Feisal.
